State of Kentucky
Adair County } ss

On this 5th day of September 1832 personally appeared in open court before the judge of the Adair Circuit Court now sitting John Goode a resident of Adair County State of Kentucky aged 83 years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and times as herein stated—

That he was drafted in the service of the United States under Capt Anthony Winston in year 1779 in Buchanan County (Virginia) where he then lived. He then marched through the Counties of Chesterfield & Dinwiddie State of Virginia on to Calbin point and was stationed at said Calbin point about ~~two~~ ^{three} months the time for which he was drafted. He was in no engagements with the enemy during this Campaign. He was then ^{received his} discharge from Col. Allen who was Commander of the Regiment the No. of which is not recollectd, Major Jones was Commander under Col. Allen. He states that he lost his discharge from this tour in James River as he was ~~carrying~~ ^{carrying} it in a canoe.

Hee further states that he again entered the service under Capt Bohannon in the Regiment Commanded by Col Taylor. in June 1781 he then marched from Buckingham County to Allertonsale and was stationed at the mouth of Rockfish in said last mentioned County about six months. Hee was put at the mouth of Rockfish River on James River for the purpose of guarding the Ferry and ferrying the provisions waggons of the army across which were coming to and returning from the Army ^{almost} constantly. He states that a few weeks after the surrender of Cornwallis in Oct. 1781. the provisions ^{and} arms and all the implements of war that were at the mouth of Rockfish were carried down to Richmond by water and that he went down with two loads of them that after he had finished & completed the transportation of every thing belonging to the Army from the mouth of Rockfish to Richmond that he received his discharge from Col. Taylor & returned to his residence in Buckingham County Virginia.

He states this last discharge received in Decr 1789 is also lost. He states that he has no records of his age. that since the Revolutionary war he lived in Virginia until the year 1794 at which time he removed to Lincoln City

Kentucky where he lived about 8 or 9 years and has lived ever since in the County of Adair where he now resides. he states that he has no documentary evidence that he knows of no person now living in Kentucky whom he can procure to testify to his services.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State -

And the said Clerks do hereby declare their opinion, after the investigation of the matter, and after putting the interrogatories prescribed by the War Department, that the above named applicant was a revolutionary soldier and served as he states. And the Court further certifies, that it appears to them that Henry Winifrey who has signed the preceding certificate is a Clergyman, is a resident in the County of ~~Adair~~ ^{Logan} and that Fleming Gooden

Mr. William F. Goode
538 Ridgeway Avenue
Cincinnati, Ohio

Dear Sir:

The data which follow were obtained from the papers on file in Revolutionary War pension claim, S.30643, based upon the military service of John Goode in that war.

John Goode was born in 1750, in Henrico County, Virginia. The names of his parents are not shown.

While residing in Buckingham County, Virginia, John Goode enlisted sometime in 1779, exact date not stated, and served three months as a private in Captain Anthony Winstanza's Company, Colonel Allen's Virginia Regiment; he enlisted in June, 1781, and served six months as a private in Captain Bohannon's Company, Colonel Taylor's Virginia Regiment and was stationed on the James River at the mouth of Rockfish River, in Albemarle County, Virginia, and guarded the ferry at that point.

In 1794, he moved to Lincoln County, Kentucky, where he lived for eight or nine years, then moved to Adair County, Kentucky.

He was allowed pension on his application executed September 4, 1832, while residing in Adair County, Kentucky.

He died March 11, 1840, place not shown.

Soldier's widow is referred to; her name and the date of their marriage are not shown and there is no reference to children.

In 1822, one Fleming Goode was a resident of Adair County, Kentucky; no relationship to the soldier was shown and there are no further family data.

Very truly yours
