The Combs of Fentress Co., TN and Casey Co., KY

Excerpted (with permission) by Combs Researcher Birdie McNutt from "James H. Combs Family 1822" by Hazel Mozell Nelson Russell, Bryan County Heritage Association Library, Calera OK.

.....James H. "Joe" Combs was born 1822 in Tennessee. About 1842 he married his first wife, Lucy HUDDLESTON. About his family and Green B. MURPHY'S and Charlotte MURPHY family moved to Liberty, Casey County, Kentucky. Charlotte was a sister to James' wife Lucy HUDDLESTON. Lucy was born January 20, 1820, in Tennessee. Her father was Jarriott M. HUDDLESTON, born June 27, 1775 in Virginia. He married Charlotte HILL July 6, 1807. She was born August 19, 1790, in North Carolina. Jarriott M. HUDDLESTON's father was Thomas C. HUDDLESTON. His mother was Millie TANNER. They married in 1774 in Goochland County, Virginia. The Full story of Jarriott M. HUDDLESTON'S family is in print. Tim Huddleston wrote a book in 1979.

.....The reason James Combs and Green B. MURPHY moved to Kentucky was the Civil War. Some of the family was divided in their loyalties between the North and South. James and his son, George Washington Combs served with the North in Company I, 13th Kentucky Calvary. James, Lucy, George W., Charlotte, Clemansy, and their husbands are buried in the Ormar Bell Cemetary on the old family farm west of Liberty, Kentucky. George W. Combs died while in the war.
