FAMILY NOTES

Marriage (8 November 1831): married near Glencoe, Gallatin, Kentucky

All of the Above gives marriage county as Grant, Kentucky and only names four children: Louisiana, Sarah, Nancy, and John.

FATHER NOTES: Myrix Josiah Williams-574

Property (22 August 1888): (sold to Joseph L. Wiley)

Property (8 October 1888): (sold to Lafayette Moore)

Property (9 October 1888): (sold to Charles Moore)

Rsrch. Note: Myrix Williams had another Williams living close to him in the 1850 Census in Gallatin County, Kentucky. William Williams age 37 (born about 1813 in Kentucky?), Wife Elizabeth age 32 (born about 1818 in Kentucky?), and children: Harry B (M, age 9), Thaddius (M, age 7), and Olivia (F, age 5). Could this be a brother or cousin?

General: Extract from "Turley Family Records": Myrix Josiah Williams was born in Madison County, Kentucky 14 July 1811, the son of John and Elizabeth (Collins) Williams from Virginia and whose ancestors came from Wales. When he was about nineteen years of age his parents moved to Gallatin County where he married Junietta Gough 8 November 1831. He joined the Baptist Church in 1842 and became clerk of the Ten Mile Association. Later he was Moderator. Myrix Josiah Williams was a staunch Whig and voted twice for Henry Clay. After the "Rebellion" he joined the Democratic Party and was elected to the Legislature in Kentucky in 1865. He was a magistrate for forty years. He was made a Mason in Tadmore Lodge #108, Chapter #51, and united with the Council and Commandery at Covington. He was elected Grand Master. Myrix Josiah Williams died at his home near Glencoe, Kentucky, 25 May 1897 and was buried at his family Graveyard.

Obituary only lists four children from first marriage.

1830-31, Myrix built a home for Junietta in Dry Ridge, Grant County, KY. They lived there until Junietta's death in 1846. Myrix Williams was the owner of a number of slaves; it is reasonable to conclude that in fact, Myrix and Junietta's home (indeed each of Myrix's subsequent homes) was build(sic) by his slaves. Myrix moved to Glencoe after Junietta died, where he saw to the construction of a two-story brick home overlooking the community. Myrix served as Glencoe magistrate for 40 years.

Myrix's granddaughter, Sara Crouch and her husband James Huey, told their granddaughter Betty Cook that Myrix, tall, proper and severe, required everyone to come to breakfast properly dressed. He read the Louisville Courier Journal every day and looked up in his dictionary any words he did not know. Rain or snow, he saw to his riding horse every morning. Myrix was remembered as generous and hospitable, but ruled with an iron hand,' Sarah said.

Neighbor of H.C. Castleman in 1860 census.

Marriage certificate to Minerva Donaldson gives his birth place as Montgomery Co. Ky.

from Pamela Marion Group Sheet: We has Grand Master of the Kentucky Grand Lodge of the Masonic Order 1865-1866. He was in the state legislature at the same time.

MOTHER NOTES: Junietta Gouge-575

General: Thomas Jefferson Turley III (4) lists on his chart (RST Note: what chart? Our copy of "Turley/Castleman Pedigree Chart" does not have this information) Louisina Williams (99) b. June 4 1834 d. August 4 1934, who m. Henry Clay Castleman; Sarah Williams who m. Washington Huey; Nancy Williams who m. John Crouch; and John Williams. The 1850 census of Gallatin Co. KY, p. 377 has in the Williams home: John 17, Louisiana 16, Elizabeth 13, Sarah 9, Nancy 7. In the 10 Mile Baptist Cemetary are tombstones for children of M.J. and Junietta Williams: Mary Jane, 3 years and John, b. 1832, d. September 16, 1851. (Copied by John and Lillie Williams). This would suggest that perhaps 6 children were born to the couple."

Notes from Pamela J. Marion:

Junietta's 7th child, Jonah died at 4 months of age. 6 weeks later, Junietta died. I do not know the cause of either death, but it stands to reason that they could have been related.

10 months later, her husband Myrix remarried. He probably was in a hurry as he has in his care 5 girls ages 3, 5, 6, 9, and 12 and a son age 14.

Junietta Gouge (Feb 25, 1815-June 17, 1846) and Myrix Josiah Wiliams were married in Grant County KY on Nov 8, 1831. Junietta Gouge [. . .] was one of nine children born to James M. Gouge (1777-1858/60) and Ellen (Ella) Jane ("Nellie") Jewett /Juett (1789-1849) of Grant County, KY. James and Nellie were married in 1807. In addition to Junietta, their children included Louisiana, James M., Marietta, William Taylor, Thomas Jefferson, Lafayette P., John Quincy, and Henry Clay Gouge. Of these children, perhaps the most locally prominent was Thomas Jefferson ("Uncle Jeff") Gouge, a farmer and sometime hotelier in Williamstown and the father of seventeen children.

Junietta Gouge and Myrix Josiah Williams were the parents of four children, Louisiana (June 8, 1834-August 4, 1934, named for an aunt); Sarah (?-?); Nancy and John, who died in 1846 at age 19. Louisiana married Henry Clay Castleman in 1850. Sarah married Washington Huey and was the mother of four: Lee; Oscar M., a pastor of Crescent Hill Baptist Church in Louisville, KY and friend of Cecil V. Cook Sr (1871-1948) [paternal grandfather of the writer of this sketch]; Annie (Gaines); and Samuel. Daughter Nancy became the wife of John Crouch (1835-1903) and the mother of Sara Crouch Huey (1861-1956) [maternal great grandmother of the writer of this sketch]. Two other children were born to Myrix and Junietta, who died quite young; they were Mary Jane (1838-1842) and Joannah (1845-1845), who lived but five months.[. . .]

In 1830-31, Myrix built a home for Junietta in Dry Ridge, Grant County KY. They lived there until Junietta's death in 1846. [. . .]

Junietta Gouge Williams died a month before her 31st birthday. She is buried on a gentle slope in the cemetery at Ten Mile Baptist Church, Tapering Point Road, in Napoleon, Gallatin County KY. [. . .] Young Junietta died of an unremembered cause. The culprit could have been the harsh gauntlet of childbirth, far more deadly in those days, to mothers than to their babes. [. . .]

Space was left for Myrix in the Ten Mile Baptist Church Cemetery. But soon enough Myrix married Martha Turley (Dec 22 1821-Nov 14 1871).[. . .] In 1874, Myrix, widowed once again, married Minerva Donaldson. . . .]

Little Nan Williams [only three when her mother Junietta died] - with hardly a memory of her mother, grew up to be an articulate, extraverted and literate woman, a venturesome widow and an honored matriarch in the home of her daughter, Sara Crouch Huey, in Union, KY. Sara named her only daughter after Nan. [. . .]

"After her husband, John, died on Oct. 7, 1903, Nanny Williams Crouch lived with her daughter, Sara and son-in-law James Huey, in Union, KY. 'Maw' was recalled by grandchildren as an old lady who loved to garden. On Sunday afternoons she would collect slips and cuttings from the neighbors and transplant them to her own patch. Maw would attend to the family's sewing and mending chores. For this labor she would recruit other relatives, who were visiting the Huey family home."

"In 1914 the adventuresome 'Maw' Crouch made a cross-country automobile trip, with two other elderly female friends, keeping a diary along the way."

1. Jackie Couture (April 10, 1998), Obituary for Myrix Josiah Williams (<http://searches.rootsweb.com/cgi-bin/iftch2?u1/data/ky+index+229624900841+F>). Gallatin County lost one of its most distinguished and venerably citizens Tuesday in the death of Hon. Myrix J. Williams, which sad event occurred at his home near Glencoe, at about 11 o'clock that day, after an illness of about a week. He had been in failing health for some time his advanced years being the chief cause, the human machinery after nearly eight six year of active service, giving way before the ravages of time. Thu passes away from the scene of worldly action one of the best men that had ever lived in this good county, a man whose useful life has been a blessing to mankind and he goes to the well earned peaceful rest with the benedictions of "Well done thou good and faithful servant," from every circle. M.J. Williams was born near Richmond, Madison County, Ky., July 14th, 1811, and was the son of John and Elizabeth Williams natives of Virginia. Mr. Williams came to Gallatin County with his father when about 19 years old, and settled at Napoleon where he was married to Miss Junietta Gouge, daughter of James Gouge, of Grant County., whose union was blessed with four children, three of whom survive, viz: Mrs. Huey of Boone County, Mrs. Castleman and Mrs. Crouch of Gallatin County. His wife dying he was united in marriage to Miss Martha J. Turley, daughter of William Turley of Napoleon, to whom seven children were born, the only survivor being our beloved friend, Rev. J. Frank Williams, pastor of the Baptist church at Harrodsburg, Ky. Death took away his loved companion and left him desolate and lonely, and after years of solitude, he again married, this time to Miss Minerva Donaldson, a daughter of Andrew Donaldson, of Carrollton, Ky., who with their one daughter, Mrs. J.E. Wolford, of Louisville, Ky, survive the beloved husband and father. He was like a grand old patriarch, his wisdom and counsel being sought by his numerous connections. Besides his children he has 16 grand-children, 30 reat-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grand-children, all of whom have promise of being useful and valuable citizens. The deceased also leaves one sister, Mrs. Mary Darnall, of Denver, Colorado, who is now in her 84th year. Mr. Williams moved to Glencoe in 1857, from Napoleon, where large circle of friends. The latch string of his hospitable home was always on the outside to his numerous visitors and a most cordial welcome was extended to all. He will be long remembered for his many good qualities of heart and mind and a silent tear will be dropped by the many who enjoyed his sterling friendship. His funeral took place from his late home Thursday afternoon, and was attended by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. Rev. George W. Hill, of the Williamstown Baptist Church, conducted the funeral services, and the remains were in charge of the Masonic order. The floral decorations were very pretty and appropriate, a number being tributes from absent friends. After the choir had sung "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," Rev. Hill read a text from mica, 2nd chapter, 10th verse, followed by prayer; then the choir renderd "Rock of Ages," and Rev. Hill preached a feeling and appropriate discourse, from the Hebrews, 4th chapter, 9th verse. The Glencoe Masonic Lodge then took the charge of the remains and rendered their beautiful ritual service, completing it at the grave in the family cemetery wher ethe body of their beloved friend and brother was tenderly laid to rest. The active pall bearers were his six grandsons, D.E. Castleman of Burlington: Thomas Castleman of Florence, Ky; M.J. Castleman, Rev. Oscar Huey, of Carrollton, James Huey of Boone County, and George Crouch. The honorary pall bearers were Robert R. Russell, James L. Grubbs, Robert Carlton, J.A. McPherson, John Skirvin and Robert E. Foster. All of the neighboring Masonic lodges were represented.
