Dear Madam:

In compliance with your request, you are furnished herein the Revolutionary War record of William Adams, as found in papers on file in pension claim, S. 30817, based upon his service in that war.

William Adams enlisted in "York town" in York County, Pennsylvania, sometime in February, 1776, served as a private in Captains Watson's and Moore's Companies, Colonel St. Clair's 2nd Pennsylvania Regiment; he was on board the batSaux on the lakes in Canada at the mouth of Three Rivers, at the time of the battle there, and was discharged in March, 1777 in Philadelphia.

He was allowed pension on his application executed August 12, 1818, at which time he was a resident of Henry County, Kentucky.

On August 5, 1832 he was still living in Henry County, Kentucky, and stated that he would be eighty-four year of age "next Christmas". It is not shown where he was born, nor are the names of his parents given.

One John Adams in 1818 of Kentucky stated that he knew the soldier, William Adams while in the service in the Revolutionary War, his relationship to the soldier not shown.
