

Chas Lewis Will,

In the name of God amen, I Charles Lewis of the state of Kentucky and county of Muhlenberg calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing it is appointed once for all mankind to die being awake in body but of perfect mind I have thought proper to make and constitute this my last will and testament. I, Charles Lewis, desire that my body be decently buried. I, Charles, do give and bequeath to my son, James Lewis, one negro boy named Monday, one horse. I, Charles, give and bequeath to my daughter, Susan one negro girl named Tammer and one feather bed. I, Charles, do give and bequeath to my son, John Lewis, one negro boy by the name of Dick and one horse. I, Charles, do give and bequeath - to my daugh Rebecca, one negro boy, Dave. I, Charles, do give and bequeath to my daughter Lizer one negro boy named Simon. I, Charles, do give and bequeath to my son Charles Lewis, one negro girl named Jude.

 I, Charles, do desire to give to my three youngest children, Elizabeth Lewis, William Lewis, and Mary Lewis, one negro apiece provided the old wench shall bear as many. If not this increase I desire the said three children to be made up as much as will make them equal with the others above mentioned at the death of my wife. I, Charles, do give and bequeath to my wife, Elizabeth Lewis, her life three negroes, Peter, Drager, and Grace with all my lands, stock and household furniture, then the balance after make the three children above mentioned equal with the rest the balance to be equal divided amongst the hole at the death of my wife, Elizabeth Lewis, I, Charles, Lewis, do beg and desire that my wife, Elizabeth Lewis, James Lewis, and Isaac Penninton shall stand as gardeners, This being my last will and testament. Signed, sealed in the presents of us. Nov. 1, 1806.
