

The Last Will. and Testament of John Miller—

Miller's will

In the name god. John Miller of Muhlenberg County State of Ky being at this time in. Sense, and Memory — and considering the uncertainty of this Mortal life I do write this with my own hand this last will and Testament I give my Sole to god. who gave it to me, and after my funeral Expence, and all my just debts are paid that my Effects be distributed in the following manner Viz. I desire that there be sale of property, of any description to be made, of any kind 1st I give and bequeath to William Miller the Shop, and all the Tools, and all that belongs to it also the land, his horse, and Saddle and Stock is his own reason his farming tools is for the use of the place 2nd I give to Betsy the Clock the wemens Saddle and all the household, and Kitchen furniture at her command to decide them as she likes to decide them, she has is bed when cold for Betsy is to have her choice of Rooms if a decision is to be made also she is to have her support of the Land as long as she lives, all the cash notes and book accounts, William Miller is to collect and put it into Betsy, she will take care of it for the good of the house. I do not no. what. more to write. but to live in the fear of god. my grand son George Richert. if he stays with William Miller till he is of age I give and bequeath him a horse saddle and bridle, also wats. marks. Henry Candiner, George Miller, Winosar David Richert I give to Each one. dollar — whereunto I set my hand and this 16th of March 1843.

witnesses present

J.S.

Jacob Richard

John Miller Seal

Muhlenberg County Ky

June County Court 1843.

The foregoing last will and Testament of John Miller deceased. was Exhibited into court, and proved to be the last will and Testament of Said Miller by the oath of Jacob Richard. a subscribing witness — thereto and the hand writing of Said Miller was proved by the oaths of Said Richard and Sanders Doves — which will is thereupon ordered to be Recorded —

Test

W. H. Noyes