in the Service in the said Regiment the whole time that the Regiment continued which was until the Spring previous to the time of the Expatriation of the Inhabitants when the most of the men recruited for during the War and obtained furloughs to go home and when the Regiment became so reduced he went to Genl. Washington and gave up his Commission which the Genl. Rec^d with several others at the same time

After remaining in the service between 19 and 20 months in which he was in the battles at Hent town & Pine town and he well recollects that his Excellency the President Monroe ^{who} was at that time under ~~charge~~ ⁱⁿ the same Company recd a wound in his shoulder at the approach of the Enemy's pickets at Hunters Lane that Capt Washington himself and the President commanded the persons hope on that Occasion and that he is in Richard circumstances and needs the assistance of his Country for support.

On this the 19th day of April A.D. 1837 Sarah Hayes, before the undersigned a Justice of the peace of & for the County and town aforesaid Sarah Hayes a resident of said County, aged forty eight years, who being first solely sworn according to law, does by her oath make the following affidavit & declaration to wit: That the above Title paper printed upon, on the one side, and written upon, on the other, hath affixed, so far as written, is the family record of Abner Montjoy Dodder, her father. That the same is a part of his family Bible and taken therefrom; and has, since her earliest memory been preserved in said Bible, and been taken and viewed as the paper to containing a correct record of the births and the marriage of her parents, and also their children, so far as their births &c are thereupon recorded. She further states, ^(4 page) that portion of the writing upon said record, between the top of the page and the two parallel lines drawn across the same, is the hand writing of her said father, who died in 1827. And that the births thereupon recorded are those of her parents and their children, excepting that of Sidney W.C. Monroe, which is the name of ~~the~~ the son of this affiant, by her first husband Alexander Monroe dec. who died in 1814 and ^{which son} was the grand-son of said William Montjoy dec. chiefly raised in his family, as a member thereof, during this affiant's first widowhood. And that the writings below said parallel lines, together with the birth and name of her said son, was written by some member of her said father's family now deceased, probably by her elder brother Capt Thomas L Montjoy dec, who died in 1826 and that at the time of writing the same, or thereafter, received the sanction and frequently underwent the inspection of her said father during his life. That of her said son she knows to be correct; and that portion thereof above his name, has always been viewed and taken and resorted to, as a correct memorial of the events of the family, both before, (as long as she remembers) and since the death of her said father, up to the present time. She has known no other in the family, and within his memory of knowledge or information there has been none other and as such she believes it correct.

State of Kentucky }
Pendleton County } set

On the 11th day of January A.D. 1837 before the undersigned justice of the peace, Mrs. Mary Mounsey, a resident of the County and State aforesaid, aged seventy six years, who being first duly sworn, according to law, doth on her oath, make the following statements and declarations, in order to obtain the benefits of the provisions, made by the Act of Congress passed July 4th 1836. - to-wit:

That she is the widow of Alvin Mounsey, formerly of Stafford County, State of Virginia, who entered the army of the Revolution in the year 1775, as Second Lieutenant, under Capt. William Washington, then, also of said County of Stafford, and his brother William Mounsey, who was the first Lieut. also of said County, commanding the company. That her said husband served in the army until, what was then called, the close or termination of the war, at which time he retired, either by permission or expiration of his term of service, from the army, holding by promotion, under actual commission, or, otherwise, ranking as such, the office of Captaincy. That she has frequently heard him say, and verily believes, he was in the battles of Trenton, Princeton and others, and many skirmishes fought between the American and British troops. That her said husband was a pensioner under the Act of Congress passed (as she is informed) 18th March A.D. 1818, and continued on the pension roll, under said Act, for about one year, when his name was stricken off and the pension withheld, by reason of his, then, holding more property (as she is informed) than contemplated by the provisions thereof, should be held, by those enjoying the benefits thereof. That she has no documentary evidence, in her possession, or within her control or reach, in support of her claims, or proving her said husband's services, and therefore refers to such, to such evidence as is contained within, and accompanying his Declarations &

2) and application under the aforesaid act of 1816: and, which Declarations and accompanying evidence, she supposed on file in the United States War Department, as well as others, and now accessible to those, whose province it may be, to pass upon her claims, and as refers to them, and prays that they may be examined—

From the Pocket-Book of her husband (preserved as a sacred relic) which he carried and bore about his person with him, through the war, she has torn the only remaining leaves, part of a Journal, which he kept of the passing events of that epoch, while in the army, in his own hand writing. This Journal contained many more leaves, showing the battles and skirmishes he fought, the movements and encampments of the army, for a great portion of the time while he was out, but all excepting the portion presented have been lost, and this remaining is presented, as containing short, and special memoranda, which from their speciality of manner, could not have been made, by any other, than him who was a particpant, and present a personal actor—

She further declares, that she was married to said Alvin Mainjoy, on the 2^d day of September 1777 in Stafford County State of Virginia, by the Rev. Mr. Brooks, a minister of the Protestant Church, and according to the forms of that Church, while her said husband belonged to the army, was a member thereof, and before the expiration of the last period of his services; he having been at the time, upon a visit home, to his friends and relatives, from the army, upon parole: and within two weeks thereafter, again returned to the same, where he remained, excepting short and occasional visits, until the close or termination of the war, as before stated—

That her husband the said Alvin Mainjoy, died on the 3^d day of November 1827, near the town of Palmyra, Pendleton County, Ky. That in the year 1784, she removed with her said husband and their family from Stafford County Va. to the West, to that portion which is now known as the State of Kentucky, where they resided until his death, which took place at the time before stated. That during their union as man and wife she bore him

3) eight children, some of whom were born in Virginia and the others in Kentucky. That her husband and family removed from the County of Bourbon Ky. to near Palmouth, Pendleton County, Ky. in the year to the farm where she now lives, and where her said husband departed this life. That her first child was born in 1779 and died about four years of age. Her 2^d was born the 6th Nov: 1781: and died where she now lives 9th Oct 1826. The 3^d the 18th Dec: 1783 and died in 1834. The 4th Mrs Mary West, was born the 13th May 1787. The 5th Mrs Sarah Trayer was born the 17 March 1789. The 6th the 20 Jan^y 1792. and died in 1793. The 7th on the 7th Dec: 1794, and died in Nov: 1834: and the 8th in 1797. and died the same year. That all of her said children have departed this life childless and without issue, excepting the aforesaid two daughters Mrs Mary West and Sarah Trayer, who are now both widows, the latter living with, and the former near her in the County aforesaid.

That she has remained a widow, ever since the death of her said husband: as will more fully appear by reference to the proof hereto annexed.

Sworne to and subscribed, on the day and year first above written, before me, the undersigned a Justice of the peace in and for the County and State aforesaid.

And I as Justice aforesaid, do hereby further certify, that the said affiant Mrs Mary Mountjoy, the widow and relict of Alvin Mountjoy dec. late of the County aforesaid cannot by reason of bodily infirmity attend Court, she being at this time by age and said infirmity confined to her house and bed. And I do further hereby certify, that the said affiant is a lady of credibility and respectability. Given under my hand as Justice aforesaid this 11th day of January A.D. 1837. Charles Martin J.P.C.

Both your kind letters, relative to ~~an~~ Mary Mountjoy's pension, were duly received. Her certificate arrived at this place, from your Office, as early as it could have possibly come. The money, or rather Northern Bank paper, from the pension agency at Lexington has been received by her.

Your first letter, after forwarding the certificate, would have been forthwith answered, had it not been believed, that the regular returns or reports from the pension agency would have informed you that she had drawn the pension and therefore every thing was perfectly right.

For your official kindness, attention and promptness she please to receive both the family's and mine grateful acknowledgments.

The mother of my wife is one of the two only surviving heirs of ^{Sir} Alvin Mountjoy, as whose widow Mrs Mary Mountjoy received this pension. The family tradition is, that he himself received nothing for his revolutionary services, and the heirs and advisers ^{thereof} they have a valid claim upon the United States. How it is presumed have examined his application papers under the Act 1828 - and his, lately, and therefore are better informed with history of his revolutionary services, their kind & nature than his only two surviving widowed female heirs can possibly be - and the laws applicable (if any) to the case. If from your knowledge thus derived, there exists such a claim in their behalf - justice would give it them upon satisfactory proof, that they are the heirs. The latter is known to them, and all those who know them; but with the mode of application, or what special laws or rules are applicable to their case is from the want, of the proof in your office, both by parents, unknown to them. If entirely compatible with the rules of the station you hold - the information is asked - and will be then fully secured.

Your friend with sincerity
