Notes for JAMES "JIM" BLEVINS:

This information has been researched by Carolyn Wilson Dyer. Information obtained from Kentucky Archives Records, Kentucky Historical Library Records.

All the Blevins in this family first appeared in Pike County, Kentucky just before 1850. In the 1850 Scott County, Virginia Census we find James "Jim" Blevins age 48, his wife Hannah Ramey age 46, children and some grandchildren living in home. Peggy 16, William J., 12, Henry H., 9, James 5., John 10/12, Rebecca 25, daughter Martha age 3. Shortly after the 1850 Census this family begins to break apart and leave Virginia and head to Pike County, Kentucky. Hannah died about Cia 1856

Shortly after the 1850 Census in Scott County, the family began to break apart and dribble into Pike County. This may have occurred as a result of the death of Hannah circa 1856. The remaining children in the family migrated to Pike County probably because two of the boys in the family, Richard Daniel Blevins, and his brother, Jacob Blevins married two Belcher sisters in Pike County in the late 1840s and remained there. They lived very close to the Harper Keen family at the time that Harper's first wife died. It would appear that Rebecca (who was in her late 20s and unmarried) may have been "set-up" with Harper, an older man with property, and a widower with several children. This scenario is consistent with the tendency Blevins family ancestors to "marry up." I have been to the location of the land that Harper and Rebecca owned. It's at a place called "Grapevine" in the hills of Pike County. The cemetery is there and both graves are marked with stones of some size. (One potential confusion in the Grapevine areas is that there was also a family of "Bevins" living there. Their ancestors are even buried in the same cemetery, but have absolutely no relationship to the Blevins family in Pike County, or the Blevins family in general.) The sons of James and Hannah eventually moved back to Scott County with their families after the Civil War. The daughters of James and Hannah appeared to have lived out their lives in Kentucky with their native Pike County husbands. There is one mystery that my research has not resolved. Jacob Blevins, son of James and brother to Richard Daniel, last appears in the Pike County in 1852 where the birth of a child is recorded. No trace of Jacob, his wife Elizabeth or their children can be found after this date. It is possible that Jacob died and Elizabeth remarried.
