Generation No. 1

1. HOLD<sup>1</sup>

Child of HOLD is:

2. i. ISAAC<sup>2</sup> DEBORD, b. Abt. 1765, NC; d. Aft. 1840, Wilkes Co., NC.

Generation No. 2

2. ISAAC<sup>2</sup> DEBORD (HOLD<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1765 in NC, and died Aft. 1840 in Wilkes Co., NC. He married ??? UNK. She was born Abt. 1770, and died Aft. 1830.

Notes for ISAAC DEBORD:

This is a quote from Hurshel DeBord on the DeBord Forum on the Internet:

(I once had an old German sailor tell me that I should change my surname to something more appropriate for a distinguished engineer. He went on to say that Debord meant peasant in German. I immediately got out my German dictionary and discovered the German word for peasant was really bauer. I concluded that he just didn't understand my hillbilly accent. Relieved that I was not descended from peasant stock, I also checked out that handy dandy French to English dictionary web site and discovered that the French word "borde" translates as the verb borders. Then checking that international telephone directory, I discovered that the DeBord/DeBorde surname is very common in France with a smattering in Belgium and even some in Germany. Then checking those other web sites for maps (I didn't trust my memory of geography), I discovered that France borders on Germany and Belgium as well as Luxemburg. Couldn't find a phone directory for Luxembourg, but I'm sure there would be lots of DeBords there also.

So, after extensive reserch, here's my theory on the DeBord surname. The DeBord clan was a very wealthy Royal clan that owned and controlled large parcels of real estate that straddled the borders of France, Germany, Luxembourg and Belgium. Since, they were not associated with any particular nationality, they became known as the borders; and everybody knows that de is Dutch for of or from. Hence DeBord means the people of or from the borders. At least that makes a better story than being a German peasant.)

Isaac Debord 1 male 5 to 10, 1 male 10 to 15, 1 male 40 to 50, 1 male 70 to 80

Note: This is probably Isaac, his divorced son Gedion and two grandsons.

According to the census records, Isaac was probably born between 1765 and 1770 and died after 1840 probably in Wilkes Co. His wife was born between 1770 and 1774 and died after 1830, also probably in Wilkes Co. They probably had at least 11 children, 6 daughters and 5 sons. There oldest daughter was born before 1790. They had 2 sons and 2 daughters born between 1790 and 1800; another 2 sons and 2 daughters born between 1800 and 1810; and another son and another daughter born between 1810 and 1820.

Per a groupsheet prepared in 1933 from info obtained from two grandsons of Gedion Debord, the children of Issac were Gideon, Jephtha, Naomi m Noah Privet, Adney m Emily Patterson, Ira m Ann Middleton, Zebada who never married, Polly m a Privett, Sally m Emanuel Lunsford, Cyrus m Polly Wyatt, and Betsey m a McGuire. Gedions' grandsons also said that Jacob was the father of Isaac. I have not found any info on the elder Jacob, but the Jacob Deboard b c 1765 was possibly Isaac's brother. This agrees pretty close with census records except for possibly another daughter born before 1790. The females that I have identified as dau 1 dau2 and dau3 or possibly Polly m a Privett, Betsey m a McQuire and Elizabeth that m Archibald Lunsford on 5 Feb 1816 in Wilkes Co NC.

I can recall my parents attending the funeral of Dick Debord in the early 1960's. He was killed by a bull in a pasture under some rather suspicious circumstances. He did not like the name Joel Francis and was always known as Dick. Dick left home in his late teens and did not have much, if any, contact with his family until his later years. I do not believe Dick was ever married. I believe he spent most of his life as a farm laborer on a farm near Whitesburg KY.

61. LEVI<sup>5</sup> DEBORD (IRA<sup>4</sup>, JEPHTHA<sup>3</sup>, ISAAC<sup>2</sup>, HOLD<sup>1</sup>) was born November 15, 1865 in Leadingham, Elliott Co., KY, and died July 19, 1928 in Wisconsin. He married (1) JUDA SCAGGS 1886, daughter of JOSEPH SCAGGS and SARAH HOLBROOK. She was born April 29, 1869 in Elliott Co., KY, and died December 13, 1901 in Elliott Co., KY. He married (2) LAURA CUNNINGHAM WILLIAMS December 29, 1904 in Rowan County, KY. She was born 1882 in Rowan Co., KY.

Notes for LEVI DEBORD:

Levi was a farmer all his life, raising corn and tobacco, except when he moved to Wisconsin to work in timber. Moved to Oklahoma in 1916 or 1917 for a short time. Willis had been the first to move there and had liked it so much that he kept writing to his father, Levi, to bring the family out.

After his first wife's death (Juda), Levi married Laura Cunningham Williams, and sired another eight children.

For some reason, in 1916 or 1917, the DeBord family moved to Oklahoma from Wisconsin, for a short time, and this is where Araminta met her future husband, Fred Meissner. It wasn't long, however, before the family moved back to Wisconsin.

Levi DeBord died in 1928 in Wisconsin, where he is buried. Willis and Grace had just moved there with their children, and one of whom, Fayette, who was 6 years old at the time, remembers cracking prune seeds and eating the insides while the family went to the funeral.

Notes for JUDA SCAGGS:

Juda, Levi's first wife, died at age 31 when Mary was just five years old, and Mary says that her mother had been sick for as long as she could remember. Mary said that her father woke them all up in the middle of the night and told them that their mother was dying. Levi held up all the little children to see her and Juda told Willis (her son) who was the oldest and about 13 years of age at the time, to look after the children for her. Mary says that is why Willis always felt so obligated to his family.

Children of LEVI DEBORD and JUDA SCAGGS are:

- vi. MARY FRANCES DEBORD, b. September 03, 1896, KY?; d. August 1981, Hiller, PA?.

Notes for MARY FRANCES DEBORD:

Mary DeBord was born in the old Scaggs homestead which is where her Uncle Eaph eventually lived with his father. As children, Mary says they used to gather at each other's houses and make candy, string beans, have apple-peelings, and go sled riding in the winter.

Mary couldn't remember her Grandpa Ira DeBord who died the same year she was born in 1896. She does remember her Grandma Nancy Barker DeBord who evidently came to help out with the children several times after Mary's mother Juda Scaggs DeBord, died. At that time, Mary's older twin sisters were 9, Mint was 7, and Mary was 5. All Mary can remember of Nancy is that "she wasn't a very big woman."

Mary did remember her Grandpa Scaggs who had a great big long white beard, lived on a farm, and the grand-kids really loved him. According to Mary, he was supposed to be one of the best horsemasters around and had some of the nicest riding horses in the area.

Mary worked in a laundry before she started working on the riverboats in 1933 at the age of 37. She worked on the boats for 23 years until she retired in 1956. She worked in the boat kitchens, washed clothes, and as a maid on the boats. There were two maids on each boat -- she worked in the back with the deckhands rooms, and other in the front for the engineers and captains. Mary always said she felt more at home in the back. The "main" boat she worked on was named the Monongahela, which used to go up and down the Ohio river. When the boat got to Haverhill, Ohio, she would go out on the deck and wave to Milza Jones who was her sister-in-law, Grace's father. Mary said that she really enjoyed working on the boats, especially the trips south when they had about 24 hours in New Orleans. While the crews cleaned the boilers of the steam boats, they went shopping, went to the shows, and took in the sights.

I talked with my father. Peter died in 1941 in West Virginia. My father was only about 9 or 10 so he couldn't be too specific. He said that Peter lived in Marysville, W.V. and was a coal miner. He had a stroke and came to live with my father and Charles A. DeBoard (Peter's son).

For some reason, an "a" was added to Charles' last name and it became DeBoard instead of DeBord. My father said that there was a courthouse fire and Charles' birth record was lost.

117. WILLIS FRANKLIN<sup>6</sup> DEBORD (LEV<sup>5</sup>, IRA<sup>4</sup>, JEPHTHA<sup>3</sup>, ISAAC<sup>2</sup>, HOLD<sup>1</sup>) was born October 03, 1888 in Leadingham, Greenup Co., KY, and died September 27, 1967 in Penn-Craft, PA. He married GRACE JONES March 20, 1920 in Portsmouth, OH, daughter of MILZA JONES and EMMA ROSS. She was born October 19, 1900 in KY, and died March 27, 1969 in Penn-Craft, PA.

Notes for WILLIS FRANKLIN DEBORD:

Comment by sister Mary: "He was a handsome man with such pretty black, curly hair when he was younger".

Comment by half-brother Chester: "I never saw Willis angry, the only time I saw him mad was when his mule got loose and into the neighbors pasture. The neighbor told Willis to get his mule out of there and Willis said: "If I had an old pine knot from Wisconsin, I'd beat that mule".

It is interesting to note that his future father-in-law, Milza Jones who was from the same general area in Kentucky, had already moved his family to Wisconsin, and the Jones and DeBords became neighbors there. It may, have been Milza who encouraged Willis to move there in the first place. They were friends and corresponded before Willis ever met Milza's daughter, Grace, who was to be Willis' future wife.

He wasn't in the Army because of bad hearing.

He taught school in a one-room schoolhouse, called the Old House Creek School, in Kentucky, which had eight grades.

His favorite Aunt, was Nancy Jane, wife of Uncle Bill Scaggs. Mary DeBord said that when she and Willis would go to visit, his aunt would say, "slice that ham right out of the middle . . . nothin's too good for Willis." Willis was well thought of according to his brother-in-law, John Milton Jones, (Milza's brother).

Willis married in 1920 at the age of 32, to Grace Jones, the daughter of Milza Jones and Emma Jane Ross. Willis and Grace went in a horse and buggy to be married by a Justice Of The Peace and the buggy almost upset on the way as they were crossing a creek. They lived in Kentucky for awhile, where their first child, a son Frederick Eugene, was born, and then moved to Brownsville, PA, where Willis worked as a coal miner in the mines and really liked it. Once he got started in that, he didn't want to do anything else. While they lived there, Grace ran a boarding house and cooked for coal miners in the settlement. Their second child, a daughter Fayettea, was born there in House #10, Newtown, the coal mining settlement in South Brownsville.

Their third child, Marcella, was born in the Hales Creek, KY. cabin, where Grace's mother and father lived. Then Grace and Willis moved back to Brownsville where their next two children, Gladys and Ralph, were born; then back to South Webster, Ohio where Dorothy was born; back to Brownsville, PA, where Howard and Ruth were born, and finally to Penn-Craft where their youngest, Russell, was born.

Penn-Craft was settled by Philadelphia Quakers and the American Friends Service formed a cooperative home-building group there. The families shared their labor and constructed their house as well as others in the community.

My Grandmother DeBord, daughter of Louis Aubrey, was born Esther Elizabeth Cole in 1894, I think in St. Joseph. Esther and Louis divorced in the early 1920s. My mother was born Esther Elizabeth DeBord in 1917 in St. Joseph. She married Charles Francis Grable (born 1917 in Fawcett, Missouri) in 1943. My mother's only sibling was Robert Louis Debord (I'll have to check that middle name). I think he was born in 1919. He made a distinguished career in the Air Force. He was the highest ranked Colonel, one step away from being a General. He died of a stroke in 1968, before he could accept the position of base commander at Da Nang during the Viet Nam War. He married, divorced, and had no children. His wife was Jan Hill? Daughter of the Hills Brothers coffee company in San Francisco. Sincerely, Sue Stamper

My Grandmother DeBord, daughter of Louis Aubrey, was born Esther Elizabeth Cole in 1894, I think in St. Joseph. Esther and Louis divorced in the early 1920s. My mother was born Esther Elizabeth DeBord in 1917 in St. Joseph. She married Charles Francis Grable (born 1917 in Fawcett, Missouri) in 1943. My mother's only sibling was Robert Louis DeBord (I'll have to check that middle name). I think he was born in 1919. He made a distinguished career in the Air Force. He was the highest ranked Colonel, one step away from being a General. He died of a stroke in 1968, before he could accept the position of base commander at Da Nang during the Viet Nam War. He married, divorced, and had no children. His wife was Jan Hill? Daughter of the Hills Brothers coffee company in San Francisco. Sue Stamper
