John, a second lieutenant in Co. H, 22nd KVI, wrote the following letter to his wife Martha on April 5, 1863 (spelling per letter):

Rec'd a letter from cousin Sam, also Jeremiah Biggs, Joseph Stuart is well, John Littleton complaining little...We are 25 miles from Vicksburg, in hopes we will not be in the fight.

Well, Martha, you said I must resign and come home. I would like to come...but I cannot resign now. The boys who have deerted are bound to be brought back to the army. Get word to Sam Everman to return.

It has got so a man can't resign without he ahs got something the matter with him. I will come the first change there is for me. I hate to disgrace myself by running off, for I could not stay at home in peace. I want t ocome honorably when I come home.

Old Abe's procluation (sic) is worth no more than if I had issued it. I am still a Union man, but I do not justify all that Lincoln has done, but it gave great room for Nigro stealing. I could fetch home as many blacks as I wanted but I don't like to take them that way.

I was glad to you was making sugar. I would like to get into the big jug of molasses.

John was due home in twenty days after being mustered out, but before being permitted to start home, he contracted yellow fever and died on August 10, 1863.

John: In honor of his 50th wedding anniversary with Ruth, Carl wrote the following poem (the following has been typed exactly as written by John):

Love Letters

Locked away in the attic snug'n a box lay letters of love almost forgotten, but not, for the love expressed their lives on and on and on shared these more than fifty years in our little home.

Our children may not know this that life is not always smoothe, but that which makes it work always is that ever abiding love.

Not all those letters speak of love some may be a little bitter, the ones that reveal a little spat only makes the next one sweeter.

Looking back those fifty years when our marriage vows were spoken. It was God's gift of love and making us one that our vows shall not be broken.

Now looking back more than fifty years it doesn't seem so long at all that we smiled at each other as we changed classes and passed notes in the hall.

Now the children we've been blessed with our daughters, four. All have their own families, our eleven grandchildren and more.

For the love letters in the attic tho at rest for many years, still speak through our children that the things written are dear.
