Sarah was married to John Gilbert by John Perry. In about 1823 they left Tazewell County and migrated Ky.. In 1830 John & his family were in Lawrence Co., KY, with three sons ages 1-15 and 3 daughters ages 5-10. John was adjacent to Robert Tabor. The story is told that the first night after John and Sarah arrived at their small cabin in Ky., it burned down. They got most of their belongings out and moved into a small cave for shelter. They hung quilts over the mouth of the cave. They spent the rest of the summer there and planted sweet potatoes in the bottom in front of the cave. One night their little dog stayed inside the quilts which covered the cave entrance and barked all night. The next morning John and Sarah found lots of bear tracks in the sweet potato patch. They planted and raised their crops and built another cabin before winter came. In 1860 Sarah Gilbert, a widow, was found in the home of her oldest son, William Gilbert, in Carter County. She is listed in the census as insane. In 1870 she is in the home of Thomas Gilbert but under the name of Susan, age 74, born in Virginia.
