Mortica Meenach settled in Carter County, Kentucky about 1850. He was a circuit preacher in Eastern Kentucky, his license being renewed in 1861 in Maysville to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church. He married Perlina Bilderback in Lewis County, Kentucky December 26, 1846 and moved to Carter County shortly after that.

Mortica's father was Alexander Meenach who migrated to Kentucky with his father, James Meenach, and seven siblings about 1794-95. Four of those siblings were, Adam, James H., William, and John who all served in the War of 1812 as did Mordica's father Alexander. The other three siblings names are not known.

Mortica and Perlina had three children, Sarah A., Elizabeth, and James Bilderback. Sarah married Wiley William Sellards and had seven children. Elizabeth has been very elusive and not much is known about her. James Bilderback Minnix married Emma Traylor and migrated to Kansas. They had five children.

Perlina died 2 Nov, 1858 and Mortica then married Margret Ann Cartee of Carter County, Kentucky. Margret parents were William and Lucinda (Clark) Cartee. Mordica and Margret were married March 25, 1859 in Carter County. They had eleven children, Harvey W., Louella, William (Billy), John Thomas (Tommy), Greene Henry, Robert Franklin (Bob), Levi, Charles Stephen, Edgar Josephus (Joe), Vera Nancy, and Luther.

Harvey married Mary Helen Burton and they had eight children. Louella married James Buchanan (Buck) Webb and had one child. Billy married Melinda Brumfield and had five children. Tommy married Eva Rice and had six children. Greene married Evi Counts and had five children. Bob married Margaret Anna Bailey and had eleven children. Levi died as a baby. Charles married Julia Nora Burchett and had eleven children. Joe married Martha Haney and had six children. Vera married John Will Haney and had ten children. Luther married Nancy Hignite and had three children.

The Meenach clan has spread nation wide, from Florida to Alaska, but there is a large family of Mordica's descendants in and around Carter County. The Meenach homestead is near Carter Caves and still houses a Meenach. The original log home has been resided and added to but the log house is still the main structure of the home. There was a store and a post office near the home that was run by one of the family for many years. Mordica and Margret are buried in Plummer Cemetery near by along with many others of the Meenach family. Not too far away is the Menix Cemetery that holds the graves of much of the family.
