DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to my parents who have lovingly supported my various interests and activities all my life. They have now also been bitten by the "genealogy bug" and are quite active in the Jefferson County Kansas Genealogical Society at Oskaloosa, Kansas.

Howard Neal and Myra Gladys (Rogers) Wellman

WITH GRATEFUL APPREICATION TO

Hubert Lyons, Jr.

Hubert Lyons, Jr., who located and provided the Lyons pictures for this genealogy. He was tireless in his search for additional descendants. Much of the information on the Lyon branch has been obtained thru his efforts.

Robert W. Booth, who graciously allowed me to use information from his book SAMUEL SPURLOCK BOOTH AND DESCENDANTS, 1981.

Numerous others who provided information in varying amounts. See page 907 for the names and addresses of these contributors.

PREFACE

I had become interested in genealogy in 1965 following the birth of our first son. As I struggled to fill in the ancestry chart in his baby book, it became obvious that I knew little of our family history. After much correspondence and research, I received Herbert Lane's name and address. We jointly began the task of compiling information on the Wellman line in the hopes of publishing it. Herbert Lane and I published the first volume of DESC. OF RENNETT WELLMAN in 1978. Herbert was then 88 years old and had been interested in genealogy for many years and had wanted to publish both the Wellman genealogy and another on his Lane ancestry. However, he was such a perfectionist that the job was never complete and needed additions and rewriting. Information was always coming in from some new source. We both struggled over the problem of when to stop and get the book printed.

Herbert's health and memory were failing. Now at age 93, he lives with his sister Emily Roache at Evanston, Ill.

Following the distribution of Volume 1 of DESC. OF BENNETT WELLMAN, additional information was supplied from many branches of the family that were previously unknown to me. As a result, in 1980 a Supplemental Volume 2 was published containing the additional information. The intent in Volume 2 was to add to or correct data in Volume 1, but not to include the data already published.

The same result has occurred following the publishing of Volume 2. Some additions or corrections have been made on many branches. However a large quantity of information has been provided on three of Bennett Wellman's descendant lines. They are

A) Emily Wellman (Allen, James, John, Bennett) who married Samuel Spurlock Booth.

B Elizabeth Wellman (Bennett) who married Flourney Cox.

C Mary "Polly" Wellman (Jeremiah, Bennett) who married Jesse Lyon. Information on the direct ancestral lines of the above have been repeated from the earlier volumes. Persons on these lines purchasing a copy of Volume 3 will then have the information on their ancestralline back to Bennett Wellman. Other lines may have to refer to one of the earlier volumes for complete information. Copies of the earlier volumes are available from the compiler.

As part of my interest in all Wellman lines, I'm trying to act as a clearing house for anyone searching any Wellman lines. I would like to obtain any genealogies containing information on the Wellman lines. To the best of my knowledge, I have a copy of those that have been published. However, there may be something out there that I don't know about. P. Cleveland Gardner of Box 709, Shelby, N. C. wrote to the Natl. Archives on 28 Sept. 1931 for information on William Wellman, who was born in Maryland in 1760, moved to Va. and then Rutherford Co. N. C. In 1856 William Wellman was 94 years old and living in Cleveland Co. N. C. Mr. Gardner stated in his letter that he was writing a history of the N. C. Wellman family. Anyone knowing anything about such a book or the information he compiled is requested to notify the author of this book.

Be sure to review Chapter 1 on the Explanation of Format, so that you can readily determine where to find various information.

CHAPTER 1

EXPLANATION OF FORMAT

As explained in Volumes 1 and 2, the genealogy is arranged in chapters generation. Some additional codes are used in this supplementary Volume to clarify in which volume the information appears.

Each family unit is arranged as follows:

1. Our first known ancestor, Bennett Wellman is assigned number 1.
2. His children are assigned numbers 2, 3, 4, 4-1A, 5 etc.
3. Descendants whose information was added in Volume 2 have an "A" following their number. The additional descendants identified in Volume 3 have a "B" following their number series. In this manner a reader can readily tell which of Bennett Wellman's descendants are newly identified in each volume.
4. The numbering system is intended for two functions.
  - a) It is to allow the reader to find the descendant in the following chapter as the head of family in the original sequence they were listed as children.
  - b) It is also the intent to be able to combine descendants from each of the three volumes and insert them in the original sequence they would have been listed had they all been identified in one volume.

As you probably realize it has become somewhat complex to accomplish these objectives. Especially since when preparing Volume 1, there was no plan for any supplements and surely not a continuing series. The dash is acting to create a subset within a number and the decimal, a secondary subset within that. An example seems appropriate.

 125-.1B
 125-1
 125-1.1A
 125-1.15B

Keep in mind that it is not essential to understand the numbering system to find information. It is a way of verifying that you are looking at the same person's information in two different chapters. Use of the index will tell you where the information for the specific descendant is contained.

5. Descendant numbers from Volume 1 and 2 are used whenever they have been assigned. No number is ever changed.

6. Children that are carried on as a head of family unit in the next chapter are indicated with a symbol that is different for each volume. They are:

Chapter 1 =

Chapter 2 = #

Chapter 3 = @

A descendant number may be preceded by more than one of these symbols. That would indicate that information on that descendant is contained in the volumes indicated.

7. Following the name of the "head of family" will be his ancestors going back to Bennett Wellman. These will be enclosed in parenthesis. Such as: Richard Wellman (Howard, Devotion, Harrison, Michael, Bennett).

8. The personal history of each individual will be given only once and it will be in connection with his appearance as a head of family.

9. For a person that does not appear as a head of family, the personal history will be given when the name first appears.

10. The name of the spouse of the head of family will be typed in all capital letters.

11. Adopted children will be list, but not carried on as a family unit.

12. Sources of information will be referenced to the list found in appendix one

13. A descendant who married another descendant will be listed together as a head of family of the one appearing first. They are cross referenced for clarity.

CHAPTER 2 BENNETT WELLMAN-HIS ANCESTORS AND FIRST GENERATION OF DESCENDANTS

Little additional information has been gathered since the publication of Volume one or two, that sheds more light on the question regarding Bennetts' ancestors. As indicated in the discussion at that time, most circumstantial evidence points to his parents being John and Nancy Ann (Cox) Wellman. John was born in 1730 and in March 1751 married NANCY ANN COX, who was born in 1733, the daughter of Phillip and Susannah (Springer) Cox.

Following is a copy of a letter written by John Wellman to J. Braxton Cox, 7 Jan. 1761, Land of Maryland.

"Dear J. Braxton Cox & wife Lee,

I am in good health, my wife is with child and is fair.

My two boys James and Bent came down with the grippe in the fall. They fared well and are strong healthy boys now. Two of my girls, Hannah (thought to be the same as Susannah) and Mary strayed off and barely missed the Indians south of us. They are safe. The three older children attende a learnin house, they do right well. Mary learnt the numbers this yeare. James reads right well and reads often to Nan. The babes are in good health. Crops were good last yeare. There is much food for all. Winter is bad this yeare. Wood for burnin is plentiful. Brother Michael came for a visit. He is well. Cousin Aaron lost his wife. He buried her in the summer, foure little babes went to live with Lizzbeth. Nans Pa is in badly health, alone and sore Carolina (believed to mean North Carolina) looks better to us now. We wish you and your family good health.

From youre Kinsman

John Wellman

The 1790 U.S. Census of Rowan Co., N.C. lists the following: John Wellman, 1 male over 16 and 2 females. Jeremiah Wellman, 1 male over 16, 5 males under 16 and 2 females. Thomas Wellman, 1 male over 16, 1 male under 16 and 1 female. There is also a John Wellman in Ann Arundel Co. Md, in 1790 with 1 male over 16 and the remaining data is illegible.

Nancy Cox could not read or write. We can find no record of Phillip Cox's death which would be after 7 Jan. 1761. It sounds like the Wellman's moved to N. C. soon after that. Nancy was pregnant with Elizabeth, b. 1 June 1761, in the move. Those born after that were born in N.C., but where? Juanita Bowman states she has searched all over N. C. while she lived in Wash. D. C. and only found a tombstone in Wilkes Co. for Anne. It was all alone and fenced in with an iron fence. It said "Anne dau. of John and Nancy Wellman b. 1 Jan. 1769, d. 7 June 1770."

#* 1. BENNETT WELLMAN was born 9 Feb. 1754, in St. Marys Co. Md. (1) or Wilkes Co. N. C. (2) and on 11 Feb. 1777 in Baltimore, Md. married to MARY MULLIGAN or MILLIKIN, who was born 13 Feb. 1755 in Prince George's Co. Md., the daughter of Lewis and Mary Millikin, granddaughter of John and Katherine Millikin, great-granddaughter of James and Jane (Prather) Millikin, Jr. and great-great granddaughter of James and Mary (Dornall) Millikin, Sr. (3) Mrs. Wellman died in Aug. 1847 in Wayne Co., W. V., Mr. Wellman died 15 Sept. 1830 in Lawrence Co. Ky. No information has been found to prove the location of their burial. One report is that they are buried on the Northrup farm just south of Louisa Ky. Another report states that he was buried in W. V. where the road forks at Highway 37 and Tolsia Highway at a place called "Wellman Town."

There are different stories of how Bennett Wellman came to Maryland. One is that he and his father, brothers, and sisters went to a dance on board ship off the coast of Ireland. When they started to depart in the wee hours of the morning, they found they were far out to sea thus shanghied to America. If this were true, Bennett would not likely have been born in America as we believe he was.

The second is that Bennett came down from Philadelphia to marry Mary Mulligan. Bennett probably came up the Shenandoah Valley of Va. Perhaps from Maryland and spent some time in Russell Co. Va. and then a little time in Floyd Co. Ky. before dropping down to the Big Sandy. (4) The following land record is from Russell Co. Va. 28 Feb. 1804 - Bennett Wellman and wife Mary of Russell Co. sold to Berry Evans 47 acres for 80 pounds on the south side of the Clinch River which had been conveyed to Bennett. Welaman by Peter Lower (Loar), dated Sept. 16, 1800. Three additional children are listed for Bennett and Mary (Mulligan) Wellman. (5) Let the compiler know of any evidence to support or deny that these are correctly identified as children of this couple.

38-1A MARY "POLLY" WELLMAN (14) (Jeremiah Bennett) was born about 1818 and on 1 June 1837 at Louisa, Lawrence Co., Ky. married JESSE LYON, who was born between 1809 and 1813 in N. C. probably Wilkes Co., the son of James Lyon. Mary "Polly" died about 1892 and Jesse died between 1880 and 1900. They are buried in Elliott Co. Ky., probably in the Holbrook Cem. The following is provided by Hubert Lyons, Jr., the great-great grandson of Jesse and Mary "Polly" (Wellman) Lyon:

"Let me say that my grandfather William Madison Lyon known as (Mac Lyon), has inspired me to write of the Lyon's Family. Beginning with his grandfather Jesse Lyon, born about 1809, died unknown. Jesse Lyon's father I believe is James Lyon. I have no idea who his mother is. James Lyon's parents are William Lyon and Magdeline (Corbin) Lyon. William Lyon (Rev. War Soldier) was born in Culpepper Co. Va. This family moved from there to Wilkes Co. N.C., at a place called Trap Hill. Then most of the family moved to Big Blain Creek of Lawrence Co. Ky. William Lyon served in the Rev. War in N.C. Now I will get on with what I know of Jesse Lyon. A asked my grandfather who was his father and he said his name was James K. Polk Lyon (named after the president). And then I asked him who was James' father and he said Jesse. Now I will tell of what I have found of the life of Jesse Lyon. The 1880 census has him being born in N.C. And then I found him in the 1840 census living in Big Blain Creek, where the other Lyon's folks lived. Next I found him living in Grahn, Carter Co. Ky. in the 1850 census. Grahn was first known as Fire Clay and then the name was changed to Grahn in 1913. Jesse Lyon married Mary "Polly" Wellman of Louisa, Ky. and they had 10 children. Jesse and Polly moved from Fire Clay to Open Fork of Gimlet. This is where he built a blacksmith shop and a farm. The Open Fork of Gimlet is in Elliot Co. Ky. It is also close to the Carter Co. Ky. line. This is where Jesse and Polly raised their family. The Lyon's families of Open Fork were Ky. pioneers. They cleared the land and farmed it, raising cotton and flax for their clothing. They also hunted for their food. It has been said that Jesse lived to be a very old man.

JESSE AND MARY "POLLY" (WELLMAN) LYON

 Lyon, Amanda (Rose) Lyon, Fleming Lyon, William Hickerson Lyon
 Front: Jesse Lyon, Dora Lyon?? or William Madison "Mack" Lyon??, Mary "Polly" (Wellman) Lyon.

In the Holbrooks Cemetery of Open Fork there is a line of unmarked graves known as the Lyons Plot. It is said that there is Lyon's folks buried there. This is where I think Jesse and Polly are buried. I have been told that Fleming, and Julia are buried there. John R. Lyon is also buried there. (He has a grave stone). It is said that there is a Lyon buried with a stone on his grave with an upside (V) knotted in it. James K. Polk Lyon, my great grandfather is buried in the Mauk Cemetery with his wife, Sara Catherine Mauk by his side My grandfather (Mac) was born in Open Fork of Gimlet. He married Amada Susan Sexton of Grahn and also of Open Fork. They moved from Open Fork to Oregon Co. Mo. and then to Hoseland Hill on Beauty Ridge, Greenup Co. Ky. and there raised 11 children."

STORY OF ELIZABETH LYON BARKER

Not much is known of Elizabeth. An old family story is that in her youth she used to own a side saddle which she would put on her horse and ride from Gimlet in Elliott Co. Ky. to Big Blaine Creek in Lawrence Co. Ky. This distance was about 30 miles. There she would visit relatives. Who she visited we're uncertain, perhaps her grandparents Jeremiah and Julia Ann (Randle) Wellman or perhaps it was one of her father's people, the Lyon's families. Elizabeth died when her son Millard, was 4 days old, probably due to child birth. She was buried in the old Barker Cemetery at Sinking Creek. However, some call it the old Boggs Cemetery of the Harper Cemetery Also.

178-13B JOHN ROBERT LYON (14) (Mary, Jeremiah, Bennett) was born 17 Feb. 1843 in Elliott Co. Ky. and on 3 Dec. 1872, married JULIA AMANDA ROSE who was born 21 Sept. 1839, the daughter of Robert L. and Sara (Perry) Rose. She died 20 Jan. 1939 and is buried in the Lyons plot in Holbrooks Cemetery in Elliott Co. Ky.

Before John married Amanda, she was married to a man named Ned Hunter. They had one son William "Ed" Hunter, born 2.4 Play 1861. It was said one dark night a Vigilante group of men known as the Night Riders came to the home of Ned Hunter, the Night Riders were on horseback and had black sacks over their face, they called Ned outside and it was said by Amanda that she heard a scuffle and they took her husband with them, never to see him again. After about two years, Amanda married John Robert Lyon. John raised Ed Hunter as his own son and then later in life Ed was said to have moved to Wisc. engaged in the logging business. John and Amanda raised their family on a farm that was over 400 acres. There he built his own homes and engaged in farming. John donated one acre of ground to the community for a school house. They named it the Lyon school in honor of John. John and Amanda were well thought of in their day.

178.15B JAMES KNOX POLK LYON (14&22) (Mary, Jeremiah, Bennett) was born 31 May 1847 in Carter Co. Kv. and about 1873 married 1st to SARAH CATHERINE MAUK, who was born about 1853, the daughter of Joseph Sr., and Sarah "Sally" (Holbrook) Mauk. She died about 1892. He married 2nd to ELLEN BURTON on 30 Aug. 1910, in Carter Co. Ky. He died 26 Apr. 1918, shortly after being struck by a streetcar. James and Sarah are both buried in Mauk Cemetery on Route 986, Elliott Co. Ky.

The family lived on Gimlet Creek straight across from the residence of James' father. Not long after Frankie's birth, his mother Catherine died. James K. not being able to take care of the infant Frankie, took the child to his brother John Robert and wife Amanda (Rose) Lyon, to be cared for. Amanda became very attached to Frankie, for she only had one son herself, named Jesse. Frankie became ill with Summer Complaint (a type of diarrhea) and died. Amanda grieved the loss of Frankie very much.

The story of Frankie was told by Sara (Mauk) DeBord. Sara said she heard the story many times from her mother, Ellen (Rose) Mauk. Sara also states she has heard this story from others too. (Sara is 81 years old in 1981).

Hubert Lyons Jr. states he believes this story of Frankie to be true, as in the Lyon's Plot there is a small unmarked grave, which very well could be Frankie Lyon's grave. The Lyon's Plot used to be called the old Lyon's Cem. by all the folks of the area. It is now known as the Holbrook Cem.

James was known to the younger generations of the Lyon family as Uncle Jim and his wife as Aunt Kate. In Jim's youth he was known as TWO FISTED JIM LYON, by some of the people of the community. His hands were twice as wide as a normal man's hand. And if he put his back to a wall he could whip as many men that would dare come against him. However Jim wasn't of a violent nature, he was said to have a kind heart by his grandchildren, and a man of few words. When Jim's son William and his family moved to Beauty Ridge, Jim came and lived there for awhile, in a small log cabin near them.

Jim was an excellent squirrel hunter, and would take his grandsons hunting with him. Although his sight wasn't good in his old age, his grandsons would spot the squirrels and Jim would shoot them. His grandchildren also came over and helped him farm. Jim was thought to have been somewhat lonely at times for he lived by himself in his cabin. Jim eventually moved back to Olive Hill, Ky. with his other son Jesse E. Lyon. Jim was known to have been a very good dresser, was particular about how he looked. Jim was struck by a street car in Olive Hill, Ky. and his injuries soon led to death. His body was taken to Mauk Cem. and he was buried next to his wife. The passing of Uncle Jim was felt deeply by all his family and friends of this kindly old man.

178-16B WILLIAM HICKERSON LYONS (14) (Mary, Jeremiah, Bennett) was born 26 Feb. 1850 in Elliott Co. Ky. and married MARGARET ANN "ROSIE" MAUK, who was born 14 May 1863 in Ky., the daughter of Fred Mauk. She died 31 Jan. 1940 and he died 6 May 1936 and both are buried at Mabry Cemetery, Hays Crossing, Rowan Co. Ky.

A STORY OF WILLIAM HICKERSON LYON

William and Margaret first settled in Ibex, in Elliott Co. Ky. located right below Gimlet, Ky. Here was where most of their children were born. William and Margaret moved second to Haldeman in Rowan Co. Ky. This is where they lived most of their lives. He built a log home here and engaged in farming. William was a hard worker, and would hoe corn from sunrise to sunset. He also had a large grove of Maple trees which they called Sugar trees in which he would boil down the sap to make Maple Syrup. One day William and his son, Everett was boiling sap and the building in which they were working in caught fire. It was such a huge blaze that all who saw it, never forgot it. In their earlier days at Haldeman, Ky. William and his family used to go to Gimlet on horseback and spend weeks at a time visiting family members and friends before returning home. When William was older he fell and broke his hip. This slowed him up in his work on the farm. William and Margaret eventually moved in with their son, Charlie, and his wife Ollie in Hays Crossing, Rowan Co. Ky. This is where they spent the rest of their lives.

495-1.16B WILLIAM MADISON "MACK" LYON (22) (James, Mary, Jeremiah, Bennett) was born 17 Jan. 1874 at Gimlet, Elliott Co. Ky., and married 1st to AMANDA SUSAN SEXTON who was born 15 Oct. 1889 in Carter Co. Ky., the daughter of Hiram and Rebecca (Harper) Sexton. She died 9 Jan. 1928. He married 2nd to BERTHA McCLINTOCK who was born 27 Dec. 1906, the daughter of Robert and Melinda (Swagger) McClintock. He died 27 June 1972 in Greenup Co. Ky. He and his first wife are buried at Howe Cemetery, Beauty Ridge, Ky.

"William Madison Lyon called "Mac" was born on the Open Fork of Gimlet in Elliott Co. Ky., January 17, 1874. He was the eldest son of James Knox Polk Lyon and Sarah Catherine Mauk Lyon. He would tell us grandchildren as youngsters how he would play in the creeks of Gimlet, and how he had rock fights with the Boggs family. He made good friends with them, especially Tye Boggs. As a very young man Mac's mother died. This caused a lot of difficulty in their family for there were seven children and many of them at times had to live with aunts and uncles after her death. Mac married in his early 30's to Amanda Susan Sexton. There were four boys and two girls in the Sexton family. Mac and Amanda lived in Elliott Co. Ky. and had three children, Ora, Arnold and Allie, born in Elliott Co. Ky. Sometime about 1908, a fellow was passing out leaflets in Ky. saying there was good land to be gotten cheap in Missouri. So Mac and his family and his father-in-law and his family all boarded a train at Olive Hill, Ky. and went to Oregon Co. Missouri to a place called Wilderness. There they built their homes pioneer style of log cabins. They stayed there for three years and had another child named Opal. About that time Mac soon realized he had left better land in Ky., than he had come to Missouri for. He used to always complain how bad the tornado's and thunderstorms were in Missouri. There were also many criminals hiding out in the hills of Missouri known as bad-landers. One of these badlanders cut Hiram Sexton's leg very badly with a knife, scarring him for life. Hiram spent three days outside of his home with a gun waiting for the return of the bad-lander. After all the bad times, the families decided to move back home to Ky. They all left except for Hiram's daughter, Laura Sexton who married a McDowell. Mac's family moved to Portsmouth, Ohio where he found work.

While living in Portsmouth, Mac met his friend Tye Boggs there. Tye told him of a place called Beauty Ridge in Green-up Ky. Mac went there and liked what he saw and bought land at Howland Hill. He would always tell us he moved there November 8, 1911. Here he built a clapboard home, it was said he hewed the boards out by hand. Here on Beauty Ridge they had seven more children. On Mac's farm he had a large apple orchard. He also farmed and raised hogs and cattle for their food. Mac was of a pioneer spirit, he made shoes and also was a bit of a blacksmith. He shoed horses and made some farm equipment as well as most of everything they needed. However, there were some very difficult times through his life, which he talked of in his old age. Mac's wife Amanda died January 9, 1928, and this made it rough on the family for some of the children were still babies. After a number of years, Mac married again to Bertha McClintock. As the years went by, Mac grew to be a very old man and died when he was 98 years old"

* 570 ROYAL V. THOMAS (Lillie, Harrison, Michael, Bennett) The following is from the Oskaloosa, Ks. "Independent" of May 18, 1928, page 1, col. 1:

AN AIR HERO TO REST
NEAR McLOUTH HOME

LT. ROYAL THOMAS
BURIED ON WEDNESDAY

Dies in Plane Crash After Many Air
Achievements His Boy Hood Life
Spent Around McLouth

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the United Brethern church McLouth, for Lieut. Royal V. Thomas, 39, aviator who was killed in a forced landing at Teterboro, N.J. last Wednesday, May 9th.

This entire community and many friends from nearby places gathered to pay their last respects to the memory of a former McLouth boy was esteemed and honored by all who knew him and offer expressions of sympathy and comfort to his bereaved parents and other relatives. Rev. E. E. McAferty, of Lawrence, who was intimately acquainted with the deceased conducted the services at the church. A military escort from Ft. Leavenworth accompanied the body, acting as pallbearers and offering at the grave the last rites to a departed soldier.

The body arrived at McLouth Monday afternoon from Leavenworth, in charge of Capt. Wm. G. Rector, 27th Div. New York National Guards. Capt. Rector was well acquainted with Lt. Thomas and had been in the air with him only a day or two before the fatal accident. He gives an account of the accident which differs somewhat from the associated press dispatches. Thomas was having changes and adjustments made in his monoplane, Reliance, following the endurance test of two weeks ago in which he wrested the solo endurance record from Col. Lindbergh with a new mark of 35 hours, 33 minutes, 24 seconds. On last Wednesday he went to test out his instruments and was accompanied by a young mechanic. Observers below noted the Reliance engine was missing fire and the plane losing altitude. It settled on a golf course a few rods from the margin of the aviation field and ran into a ditch which presumably was not noticed by the occupants of the plane. The ditch caused the plane to turn over on its nose and slid along crushing Thomas underneath. The mechanic was also killed.

Capt. Rector declares that Lt. Thomas was contemplating entering the New York to Rome direct flight contest and that he was backed by Mr. Jackson Martendel of 120 Broadway, New York. This is denied, however, by Miss Elmyra Rush, personal friend of Lt. Thomas, who came from her home at Mays, Ind. to attend the funeral.

Lt. Thomas went into aviation service during the war. At that time he was studying at Harvard, following law courses at Kansas City school of law and at Georgetown University. He became an instructor in the government aviation service at Kelley field San Antonio. After the war he went into exhibition flying and passenger carrying, and in this way traveled over a great deal of the Southwest. He came into national prominence by flying into the Grand Canyon of the Colorado near Bright Angel trail, landing on the plateau four thousand feet below the rim and coming up again. Last September he entered the cross-continent race from New York to the Pacific coast but suffered a minor accident at Chicago and dropped out of the contest. He spent a part of the winter at Miami, Fla. and in February went to Mitchell, New York, where he was engaged at the time of his tragic death.

Royal Thomas was born and raised in the Wellman community, south of McLouth, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, and the grandson of H. W. Wellman, who is still living, at the age of 96, in the old home community. He is survived by his parents of this place, by three brothers, Frank E. of Los Angeles, Harry of Pueblo, Dewey, now in Canada, and by three sisters: Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Velma Simmons, Mrs. Beatrice West, Kansas City.

Note:

A sister Loretta Umholtz was not mentioned in the newspaper story for some unknown reason.

699-77.061B ARNOLD LEE LYON (14) (William, James, Mary, Jeremiah, Bennett) was born 19 May 1906 in Elliott Co. Ky. and married 1st on 19 May 1925 in Greenup Co. Ky. to MARY ELIZABETH LEADINGHAM, who was born 30 Apr. 1909 at Greenup, Ky., the daughter of Peter and Molly (Craig) Leadingham. She died 13 Dec. 1963 at Greenup, Ky. He married 2nd to MARY ELIZABETH HUK.

The following story was written about Arnold by his granddaughter Barbara Gail Lyons:

Grandpa's Still

By: Barbara Lyons, b. 24 Sept. 1968, age 14

"Grampa said that when he was a young man growing up in Greenup County things were very hard for country people.

The depression had a strangle hold on all aspects of the economy in the country and city alike... .except one. Grampa said people always had money for good whiskey. "Hard liquor for hard times" became a standard thought.

My grandfather being an enterprising young man and not having a great desire to starve or go completely naked, began to speculate as to how he might help spur the economy and cash in on some of the profits himself.

Now there's a long, deep, dark hollow lying on the north fork of the head waters of Becky Creek. At the head of this hollow is a rock cliff with a clear, cold, pure spring bubbling up from the base of the rock. A perfect place for a still.

Now in order to produce a large volume of white lightning you must have a good haul road to bring in supplies. And a good guard to watch the road. This venture must be kept secret as the government frowned on such business, because prohibition was not yet repealed.

Well, supplies rolled in by mule and white lightning mysteriously appeared as if from a newly discovered spring somewhere in the strange dark hollow.

It didn't take long for signs of prosperity to be noticed. Suddenly Uncle Allie acquired a brand new souped up, specially built, low slung Model A which was quite an accomplishment for a poor country boy, to say the least. People were very superstitious in those days and ghost stories did abound. It was good to have news of a few horrible creatures loose in the woods. One good way to perpetuate this was to tell Bill Greene. He was a man with a learning disability. My grandpa said he was "not right" in the head. He was either brain damaged or just retarded. In spite of this he earned his own living by chopping wood and doing farm labor for any one who would keep him. (He mostly stayed with Lyons and Bently familys in the area). He would show up suddenly carrying a tree on his shoulder, throw it down in the wood lot and chop and split it all up into "stove" wood before he would say a word. He was powerfully built and gloried in his strength. He would then come to the door grinning from ear to ear. He would never ask to stay but ask what you thought of his work. If you were pleased he would just stay. He would disappear just as suddenly, sometimes to reappear at a neighbor's in great fright especially if he had to pass through a stretch of dark woods and deep hollows, where the spirits "haunted". All this helped to convince local people to stay on the main roads and avoid short cuts through the woods.

One evening Grandpa was alone at the still when he thought he heard a slight noise as a twig snap or dead leaf crush under the heel of a "revenooer". He stood up silently and backed away into the green woods, slipping from tree to tree and trying to see if he could see anyone. He breathed a sigh of relief when he spotted his faithful old dog on the road to the still. "Shep" the old dog seemed in a strange kind of hurry as if he was trying to get away or keep ahead more likely, Grandpa thought. The old dog kept to the trail, steadily, and panting. His extreme old age made him hold his head sideways to hear. better from his one good ear and his lame hind leg gave him an ungainly appearance. He held steady for another two or three minutes then broke into an awkward run and short gasping barks. "Good Boy" Grandpa said through clenched teeth. My Grandfather is a huge man. When he was a young man he was all muscle, conditioned from hard farm work, and not pampered by soft "light" bread, soda pop, and too many sweets. He could run five miles through saw briers, brush, dodge tree limbs, jump boulders and make some good time through the woods from ridge top to ridge top. But it's not so easy to outrun a bullet.

There were three of them and no shortage of ammunition. As soon as Grandpa broke and run they were after him shouting, "There he goes, get him". Grandpa said the bullets sounded like bumble bees whizzing past his head. He said he had his mind made up to outrun 'em. He had his rifle with him and was a crack shot. He could have ambushed them and killed them all, but my Grandfather would never have murdered anyone.

The next day when Grandpa went to check on his still, he was shocked, for he found the "revenooers" had busted it up."

After their marriage, they lived in Ky., where two children were born. They then moved to Ohio where three children were born. In 1974 they returned to Ky. and purchased a house that was haunted.
