

Geraldine Yerian
wife of Elba Ross

Mathias Irion

“He arrived in Philadelphia aboard the ship Pleasant from Rotterdam in Oct of 1732. He was illiterate and did not know how to spell his own name. He signed with his mark "MI". He was unable to pay for his passage, so he was sold into indentured servitude to a farmer of Oley, PA, named David Kaufman. He had to serve for 3 years and 9 months, and by the terms of the indenture received a horse, saddle and 2 suits of clothes when his service was completed. By the 1740's he had a farm of his own in what is now Linn Township, Lehigh Co., PA. He left a most interesting will, which I am attaching. His farm was inherited by George, who sold it in the 1770's and removed to Westmoreland County.
