

Nancie Stone

Feb 15, 1933 - Dec 14, 2008

Nancie Lee Stone, age 75, of Cincinnati, Ohio died Sunday December 14, 2008. She was born 15 Feb 1933, in Grayson, Kentucky, daughter of the late Nora Lee Hubbard and Daniel Whitby Stone. She was preceded in death by her parents, Dan and Nora Lee; brothers; Daniel Wadsworth Stone and Hubbard Nelson Stone; sisters Virginia Stone Wilson and Lucy Catherine Stone, niece Marolyn Sue Wilson Collier, sister-in-law Florene Howard Stone. She is survived by a brother James Stone, Huntington, West Virginia and a sister-in-law Ruth Taylor Stone, Corbin, Kentucky. Nephew Dan Stone Harlan, Kentucky; niece Carolyn Wilson Dyer, Georgetown, Kentucky, Cynthia Ruth Stone, Danville, Kentucky. Great nieces and nephews, Stanya Dyer Kragel, Kris Dyer, Lexington, Kentucky, Kevin Dyer, Blake Wilson Adams, Georgetown, Kentucky, James and John Stone, Hannah Stone, Harlan, Kentucky, Michaela Stone, Danville, Kentucky, Elizabeth Jade Adams and Taylor Adams, Georgetown, Kentucky. Great-great nephews and niece; Kameron Kragel, Karleigh Kragel, Benton Curry Dyer. Nancie attended Prichard High School, graduating in 1951 as one of two Salutarians of her class. She attended Eastern Kentucky University from 1951-1955 and received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Home Economics. Following graduation, 1955-57 she was Home Economist at the Kentucky Power Co. in Ashland, KY. She went on to serve as Director of the Martha White Test Kitchen in Huntington, W. Va. from 1957 to 1963. Then from 1963 to 1971 she was Executive Director for the Tri-River Council of Camp Fire Inc., Huntington, W.Va. In 1972 she joined Givaudan (formerly Givaudan Roure Flavors) where she was Director of Special Projects. During her 29 years with Givaudan, she has played a major role in growing a small test kitchen into the present "state-of-the-art" research facility that it is today. She was commended by the organization for making significant contributions during a series of growth moves through new corporate owners. In a recent company publication, she was further cited for her "positive attitude, untiring work ethic and her understanding of the need for corporate flexibility" During the earlier years of Nancie's career, she made major contributions to youth and community programs. She also was active in live television commercials and product demonstrations. She was selected as National Outstanding Alumnae for Eastern Kentucky University in 1997-98. Her desire is to now contribute to the lives of young people through an endowed scholarship fund for the Eastern Kentucky University Foundation, Inc., for: A). Any female student enrolled full-time at Eastern Kentucky University. B.) A resident of Kentucky, Ohio, or West Virginia. C). the student must be employed either on or off campus a minimum of 10 hours per week. D.) A 3.0 GPA standing must be maintained to re-apply. The first Nancie L. Stone scholarship was awarded for the 1998-99 academic year. Nancie retired from Givaudan Flavor Corporation. Nancie is also a Honor Roll Member of the Legacy Society of Eastern Kentucky University. Funeral services will be conducted Saturday 12:00 noon at Malone Funeral Home by Tim Nischan. Burial will be in the Hillcrest Burial Park. Friends may call from 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon Saturday at Malone Funeral Home. Condolences may be sent to www.malonefuneralhome.com.

Submitted by: Carolyn Wilson Dyer    cwdyer at oadrunner.com